DPTS Awarded Buckley AFB Customer Service Contract

Supporting Transition Assistance Programs for Airmen and Families

Quantico, VA– August 30, 2008 – DP Technology Services, Inc. (DPTS), a technology solutions provider, announced today that it was awarded a contract for Customer Services at Buckley Air Force Base, Colorado. DPTS personnel will provide onsite transition assistance program support for the Airmen and Family Readiness Center (A&FRC). As a performance based contract, DPTS will administer the Base Transition Assistance programs for the purposes of providing assistance in the A&FRC Discovery Center at Buckley AFB, CO.

The Airman and Family Readiness Center (A&FRC) is the service organization and focal point for Air Force family matters. Serving all Single and married Active Duty, DoD Civilian Personnel and their Eligible Family Members, to include Guard and Reserve Members while on Active Duty, other Eligible Uniformed Members, Military Retirees, and their Eligible Family members.

DPTS President and CEO, Ms. Darla Portillo, said, "In these unstable economic times, our personnel will support the Air Force personnel assigned to Buckley AFB in transitioning from military to civilian status. Our goal is to assist airmen and their families with administrative, customer service and social service community support and resources as they grow their career, update their skill sets, have a need for family assistance/counseling, or even transition out of active duty."
